

ONWARD MARCH OF THE GERMANS

Ghent, 35 Miles From Brussels, Falls Into Hands of Invaders.

NAMUR IS INVESTED.

Dispatches From St. Petersburg State That Half a Million Russians Are in Prussian Territory.

Ghent, thirty-five miles beyond Brussels, is occupied by 50,000 German troops. Ostend, on the Belgian coast, is the next objective of the swiftly moving German invasion.

Namur is invested and the main army is moving along both banks of the Meuse.

Brussels occupied, the Belgians, "bottled up" in Antwerp, the Kaiser is delivering swift blows at the allied line of defense, with Maubeuge and Givet as points of possible attack within the French frontier.

So swift has been the advance the Kaiser's army of invasion following the occupation of Brussels that the main body is already assaulting the Franco-British line between Mons and Charlevoix.

The British and French war of fices admit the seriousness of the battle now raging on the first line of defense and intimate it may be necessary to give way to take new positions well within French territory.

In Lorraine the French troops have been forced back, while the Alsace campaign has driven the German lines back upon the right bank of the Rhine.

St. Petersburg asserts 500,000 Russians are already in Prussian territory.

THIRTEEN-YEAR-OLD BRIDE.

She And Her Husband Said to be Wanted in Baltimore.

Baltimore, Aug. 22.—Fairly cursing the name of her mother and reiterating again and again her allegiance to George C. Scheller, the man whom she had married fifteen days ago, thirteen-year-old Mrs. Scheller last night submitted as quietly as she could to arrest and was turned over to the care of a police matron. She, with her husband, were arrested late Tuesday night on a warrant charging them with being fugitives from justice from Baltimore.

"I just couldn't stand the life my mother and sister were living," Mrs. Scheller sobbed. "My father died when I was three years old, and not long after my mother married again. Later she was divorced from my stepfather and once more married. Now she has separated from her last husband and is again seeking a divorce, that she may once more marry. She ran a boarding house in Baltimore, and it was while she was away on a trip with the man I believe she intends to marry that George—he's my husband, you know—took me away and we were married."

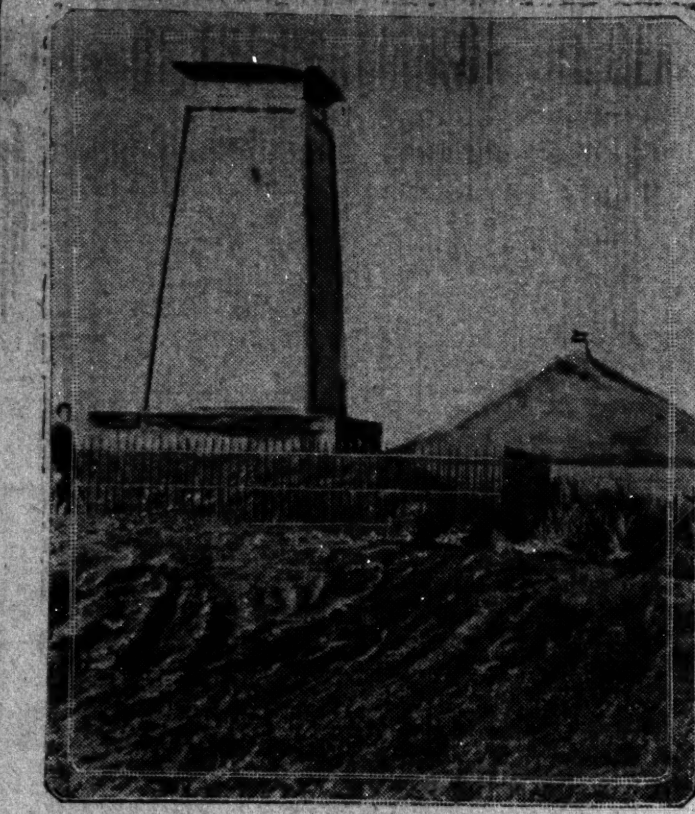

George Scheller, the husband, was doubtful regarding the charge which might be brought against him in Baltimore, but admitted that he had sworn the girl's age to be eighteen when he married her. This is not a felony in Virginia.

Frank Dubowich yesterday shot and killed his wife in the presence of their four small children and then committed suicide in Benton Harbor, Mich. Domestic disagreements are said to have brought about the tragedy.

MONUMENTS ON FIELD OF WATERLOO WHERE ANOTHER MIGHTY CONFLICT MAY BE FOUGHT.

Here are pictured two of the monuments erected on the battlefield of Waterloo, where more than 100 years ago Napoleon was defeated by the combined armies of the Germans and English.

Another conflict is now in progress on this same field with the same nations participating, only this time the French and English are lined up against the Germans.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

LIMOLL cures prickly heat.

WHY A FORD? Because emphatically the Ford is the car of unequalled, unexcelled performance.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Robert E. Martyn, of Washington, and Nellie May Bulman, of Alexandria.

Mrs. Mary E. Norris, wife of James L. Norris, the latter a former resident of Alexandria, died in Baltimore Wednesday.

Shorty, the large and beautiful cat of Mrs. Elizabeth Barker, died Thursday. Shorty was one of the oldest cats in Alexandria, having reached the age of twenty years.

The members of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company met last night and completed arrangements for their trip to Portsmouth next Tuesday.

The committee of Virginia Lodge, No. 1076, Loyal Order of Moose, met last night and made arrangements for a bazaar to be held during the week of October 12th for the purpose of raising funds for a new home to be erected in this city.

BITTEN BY A DOG.

Young Girl Attacked While Near Her Home Thursday Evening.

Rosie, daughter of Raymond Grover, was attacked by a dog belonging to Joseph Clark, near her home, at the foot of Franklin street on Thursday evening, and bitten by the animal. Dr. Warfield rendered surgical attention.

Grover swore out a warrant against Clark, charging him with harboring a vicious dog and the case came before the Police Court this morning. H. Noel Garner represented the defendant.

Justice Catton ordered that the dog be killed and the head placed in charge of the health authorities for examination. Counsel noted an appeal. Justice Catton then ordered the police to take charge of the animal in the meantime.

PRETTY PIECE OF WORK.

Among the many pretty pieces of work that have been completed at the children's play ground, is a beautiful basket made by Alice Hudson, which will be forwarded this afternoon to Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of President Wilson, by Mrs. Ball. Alice is the eldest daughter of Mrs. Lucy Maude Hudson, of 200 South Pitt street.

DESPERATE CRIMINALS.

Italians Are Identified as Men Who Have Long Criminal Records.

Roanoke, Va., August 22.—Two of the five Italian bandits who robbed the payroll packages of the Glen three guards and afterward were cornered and shot to death, have been identified. One was Patsie Mangione, convicted as a white slave in a United States court and who jumped his $5,000. bail bond. The other, Natalie Gelo, which is a Sicilian, nickname, meaning "the native culture." Gelo was a professional blackhand man, acting as collecting agent among the Italian miners, for the central organization at Rochester, New York.

AFTER POLITICAL MEN OF THE CLOTH

Suggestive Circular Received in Richmond From Lone Star State.

"FALLEN MINISTERS."

Texas Farmers Would Lift a Certain Class "From the Slough of Politics Back to Pulpit."

Richmond, August 22.—Copies of a pamphlet just issued by Texas farmers protesting against the political activity of the ministry have been received here.

Political and economic conditions in Texas are about the same as those prevailing in Virginia.

The Texas pamphlet boldly speaks of the "yellow peril" of politics from the pulpit and calls upon brethren to unite in lifting fallen ministers from the sloughs of politics back into the pulpit.

The Farmer's Union of Texas, with a membership of 50,000, opposed Statewide prohibition in the recent contest in that State solely on economic grounds, but it issued a statement in which local opinion was put on a higher moral plane than Statewide prohibition.

In a pamphlet recently issued by the Farmers' Union, over the signature of its president and secretary, the following statement appears:

"At least 75 per cent of the preachers of this State are on the payroll of the farmers; the farmers of Texas have built approximately 10,000 churches; contribute toward the support of religious institutions about $5,000,000 per annum, and the church census shows that seventy-five of every 100 members of the various churches live on the farm."

The Statewide Prohibitionists of Texas had charged the farmers with "selling out to the liquor power." This the farmers resented. "What we have to say," continue these courageous farmers in their pamphlet, "has no reference to that vast body of militant preachers who have consecrated their lives to the uplift of mankind and whose precepts and examples are a beacon light illuminating the pathway of the human race." Continuing they say:

"We address ourselves exclusively to that coterie of political clergymen who prostitute their high calling by capitalizing their reputation and by lending their occupation to designing politicians, and we appeal to the Texas laymen to use their influence in preventing the yellow peril of politics entering the pulpit in any of its disguise."

"The religious preacher is the most capable servant and the political preacher the sorriest master the world has ever known. Wherever power is placed in the hands of the latter they invariably become intolerant, bigoted and vicious."

"Civilization has many times been compelled to drive incorrigible preachers back to the pulpit, at the point of the bayonet. Many of the pages of history are wet with blood shed at the hands of political preachers, who wrote laws on the statute books that committed arson upon mankind, maimed human beings with the hatchet and sent helpless women to the torture rack, all because they disagreed with their lives. When in control of government the pulpit politicians invariably undertake to perform political miracles such as casting out witches with the flame of the torch, suborning conscience with shuffles and enforcing opinions with the bullet."

"A preacher who graduates from the pulpit into politics becomes a menace to good government, and likewise a politician who occupies the pulpit debauches the church and becomes a menace to religion. These occupations will not blend. No free government can long exist on the church perform its mission to society when preachers and politicians temporarily exchange callings, and a civilization which will countenance such conduct will soon decay. Such a traffic in occupations is as unsound in practice and principle as

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A semi-official report is current in Pekin that German will make no reply whatever to Japan's ultimatum, treating it with silent contempt.

Three men riding in a farm wagon were killed and a boy seriously hurt near Stottville, N. Y., yesterday afternoon when an Albany Southern trolley car crashed into the vehicle.

Albert Fileux, of New York city, an aviator, fell 1,000 feet in his monoplane at the Hempstead, N. Y., aviation field yesterday and escaped with his life. He was badly bruised and lacerated, but surgeons at the Nassau Hospital said that he was suffering chiefly from shock and that they thought he would live.

A movement is under way to have the Sacred College of Cardinals address the emperors, kings and president of the countries engaged in war, asking them to declare a truce while the new Pontiff is being elected. This plan, as well as the proposition to attempt mediation, provides for the assistance of the United States, as the greatest neutral power.

An act of Providence in sending a bolt of lightning to kill and maim 17 people at Reuters Mill, Bryan County, Ga., was responsible for the loss of that county to Representative Charles G. Edwards, in the primary election of Wednesday. Edwards had 18 promised votes at Reuters Mill, which was all of the vote registered there. As a result of his disaster no votes were cast at that precinct, and the result was that Edwards lost the county by six votes.

Four people, residents of Le Claire, Iowa, a father and three daughters, were drowned yesterday in the Mississippi River, near Le Claire, a village about 12 miles from Davenport. The father lost his life in an attempt to rescue his daughters. The oldest girl was wading behind a boat containing the others, when she went in water over her head. Her two sisters leaped in to help her, and the father made a fruitless attempt to save all three.

The captain of a Swedish steamer, which has just arrived from Libau, tells the following story of the bombardment of the Russian seaport by the German fleet: "It was on a Sunday evening that the rain of fire began to fall on the city. The townspeople were thrown into a panic. They ran into the streets and other open places because their houses were falling and burning. Fifteen women who were seated on a pile of lumber were all killed by the explosion of a single shell. The bombardment continued for two hours. Many buildings and bridges were destroyed."

For nearly half an hour yesterday afternoon New York was as dark as at night, while it was visited by one of the most severe electrical storms in its history. One death, a panic among 2,000 bathers in a pavilion struck by lightning, and injury to seven persons caught in the path of a spectacular Broadway runaway sums up the known casualties from the storm. It brought relief from the intense heat, the temperature dropping from 87 to 77 degrees. Louis Sen, a Chinese farmer, was killed by a bolt while working in a field at Astori, Long Island. Two persons were killed, two others were perhaps fatally injured, and much property damage was done by a severe electrical storm which swept over the greater part of Connecticut late yesterday.

"We appeal to the laymen of Texas to demand that political preachers give their congregations more old time religion and less political claptrap; that they display a more earnest effort to reach the hearts of men and play less to the galleries, that they often hold fellowship with the members and favor caucuses with the politicians. Certainly the laymen cannot perform their full duty to the church by singing songs, paying church dues and voting tickets handed down from the pulpit by political evangelists. The laymen should become a dominating factor in the politics of the church. Let all the brethren unite in lifting fallen ministers from the sloughs of politics back into the pulpit."

ABSOLUTION OVER BODY OF DEAD POPE

Procession Bears Remains to Chapel of the Blessed Sacrament.

WISHED TO DIE POOR.

Cardinals May Not Shut Themselves Up During Deliberations Incident to Electing Successor.

Rome, Aug. 22.—Borne by red uniformed members of the Sodality, who, when he was alive, carried him in a sedan chair, the body of Pope Pius X., dressed in pontifical robes and miter and with the other emblems of his sacred office lying beside it was taken to the chapel of Blessed Sacrament in St. Peter's yesterday where the solemn rites of absolution were performed.

Thousands previously had visited the throne room, where the body lay, to look on the face of the dead Pontiff and many wove themselves into the great procession from the throne room to the chapel. The procession was headed by the bearers of the massive silver pontifical cross, twenty cardinals and patriarchs, archbishops, bishops, priests and papal and court chamberlain, and members of the Swiss noble and palatine guards in their multi-colored uniforms. The scene was an impressive one.

Under the flare of the candles in the chapel could be seen the tear-dimmed eyes of prelate, priest, layman and papal guard. Especially affected were the bearers of the body of the Pope.

The body was embalmed prior to its removal to the chapel for the ceremony of absolution. Instead of the antiquated method of removing the viscera and preserving it in a vase in the Church of St. Vincent near the quirinal, a fluid, which it is claimed will preserve the body perfectly, was injected into the arteries.

Mourning throughout Rome continues. All theatres, moving picture shows and other amusement places are closed. Thousands gathered in St. Peter's Square Thursday night and remained there some in prayer, until broad daylight, when a violent thunderstorm drove them away.

The contents of the will of Pope Pius have become known. The testament is dated 1911, but has codicils made in successive years. To the members of his immediate family he leaves $20,000 which was presented to him some years ago, and $24,000 to his nephews. Both bequests are made subject to the approval of his successor. In the will is the following phrase:

"I was born poor and lived poor, and I wish to die poor."

FUNERALS.

The remains of Mrs. Anna E. Sav, age, 62 years old, who died in Washington last night, have been brought to Demaine's undertaking establishment in this city from which place the funeral will take place Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

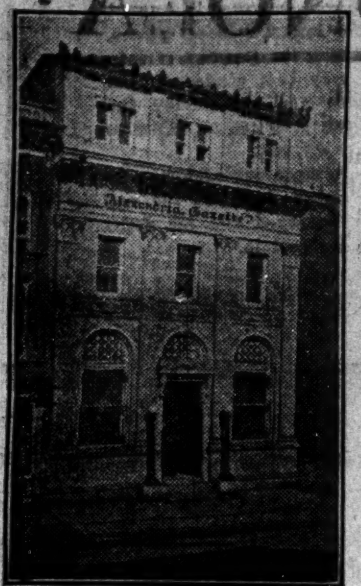

Funeral services for Frank Elliott were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late residence, 206 north Pitt street, and were conducted by the Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace Episcopal Church.

Funeral services for Mrs. Frances Taylor will be held from her residence in Virginia Highlands tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

STATESMEN AT BALL GAME.

We are told that in the days of ancient Greece the Areopagites were wont to lay aside their brains in order to attend the Olympic games.

Warrants were issued by Speaker Clark yesterday for 43 members of the House before a quorum could be assembled to continue consideration of a certain business. Deputy Sergeants-at-arms locked ten at the American League Baseball Park.

CAPTURE OF THE BELGIAN CAPITAL.

The beautiful city of Brussels is now in the hands of a hostile army which has levied a war claim of forty million dollars upon it. The invaders have also levied a claim of ten millions of dollars upon the city of Liege.

Brussels, which by its palatial structures, art galleries and the thousand and one objects which have for many years been so much enjoyed by visitors to the Belgian capital, is now being, in a sense, trodden down by the German troops. It remains to be seen whether or not they will follow the example of Napoleon by removing the costly works of art to Berlin.

The brave Belgians, after fighting against tremendous odds, have been forced to abandon their beautiful city to overwhelming numbers and make preparations to withstand a siege in Antwerp.

The horrors of this colossal war are already felt not only in the country which is being overrun by the Kaiser in his march towards Paris, but Germany is also experiencing what war means, and the necessities of life are on a steady rise. Old men and boys in knee pants are on guard in the German capital, while prayers and sighs are going up in all parts of the Fatherland for the speedy termination of what is the greatest conflict known since man was placed upon the earth.

ARRIVAL OF THE COOL WAVE.

The change in the weather toward the close of yesterday was unaccompanied by any serious disturbance of nature. A gentle rain fell, and there were some thunder and lightning, but the wind was barely above the velocity of zephyrs.

It was not so, however, in some other places. The darkness was about that of midnight shortly before the storm broke in New York, and the thunder and lightning were appalling. The city was deluged with rain while a high wind prevailed. In places near New York the storm was very severe, and at the resorts the greatest consternation was caused by the elements.

Similar conditions existed in Philadelphia and in the vicinity of the Quaker City. High winds and thunder and lightning accompanied the advent of the cool wave.

Reports from different parts of Pennsylvania and New Jersey tell of damage to property and loss of life by storms during the past two days. A number of people were killed by lightning in both states. The weather during most of the week now drawing to a close has been hot and depressing. While no fatalities or prostrations have occurred in Alexandria, deaths are reported in other cities, while the cases of prostration are legion.

CAUGHT WITH PLUNDER.

Chicken Thief Relieved of Three Hens and a Rooster by Police Last Night.

Officers Reed and Miller at a late hour last night met a negro named Robert Williams on south Fayette street, who had four chickens in his possession and after taking the fowls from him conducted him to the station house. It was later learned that the chickens had been taken from the premises of a resident of the southwestern section of the city.

Williams was this morning brought before the Police Court to answer the charge of larceny of the chickens. Williams in his defense alleged that he procured them from three black men. He was sentenced to jail for sixty days.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher of this place, "and was down in bed for three months. I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

FINANCES AGAIN NORMAL.

J. P. Morgan Brings Reassuring News to Washington.
Washington, August 22.—Reports of decided improvement in the general condition of the country and the financial situation in New York were brought to the Treasury Department yesterday by J. P. Morgan and William Porter, a member of the Morgan firm. Mr. Morgan and Mr. Porter spent nearly two hours in conference with Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, and members of the Federal Reserve Board.

Mr. Morgan declined to discuss his visit and no formal announcement was made of its purpose. Secretary McAdoo, however, said that Mr. Morgan had assured the government officials that conditions have showed steady improvement and that generally the situation is reassuring. The bankers returned last night to New York.

NO MORE FALLING HAIR
NO MORE DANDRUFF

Nearly every one has dandruff, and must reconcile themselves to the idea of becoming completely bald or resort to the use of Newbro's Herpicide.

The manufacturers have absolute faith in Herpicide to remove all traces of dandruff. So perfect is this belief that all dealers are instructed to sell the preparation with a "money back" agreement.

Such supreme confidence is the best evidence in the world of the merit of Herpicide. They know the result, hence the guarantee. It protects the purchaser.

Used as directed, Newbro's Herpicide eradicates dandruff and prevents the hair from coming out. It stops itching of the scalp, which is so disagreeable.

Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded.

Applications may be obtained at good barber shops.

THE FIXED IDEA
You want MONEY—you can HAVE it.—But you FIRST must get the Saving Idea.
"You say that you deserve success—then prove it. You need no capital but a FIXED IDEA and the resolve to carry it out."
Thinking and doing aren't the same. Good ideas are only seeds. They must be planted and tilled before they can produce.
Start to save and we will help you to get more MONEY.
HERBERT KAUFMAN
